Our fees

Our fees are set at the outset based on your requirements, and agreed upon with you beforehand.

Our initial service includes a meeting or a telephone conference, and possibly technical work (calculations, tax returns...)

Once the fees are agreed upon, they are payable in advance and, normally, there are no additional fees even if your enquiry takes more time than we anticipated at the outset.

It goes differently if you have changed your mind and require us to work on an amended enquiry.
